 Nelson, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean, to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board the Victory, at Sea, May 19, 1804.

SIR,
I HEREWITH transmit you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty,
 Copy of a Letter from Captain Pettet, Commander of His Majesty's Sloop Termagant, giving an Account of the Boats of that Sloop having, on the 15th Instant, taken Possession of the French Chebeck Privateer Felicite, off Port Favona in Corsica, which it appears the Enemy had scuttled previous to their leaving her, as she soon afterwards sunk.

I am very much pleased with Captain Pettet's Exertions in having destroyed this Vessel, as she was one of the finest Privateers in this Country, and had captured two of our Merchantmen last Year, off Tunis. I am, &c.

NELSON and BRONTE.

Termagant, Port Farma Island, off
My Lord, Corsica, May 15, 1804.
I HAVE the Honor to acquaint your Lordship, that at Two P. M. I chased a strange Sail under the Land, but before I could arrive up with her, she got into the Port Farma, and anchored behind a Reef of Rocks. I came to, with the Sloop, and sent the Boats in, who brought her out; but from the Enemy's having scuttled her, she went down within half a Mile of the Shore in Fourteen Fathoms Water: she proved to be the Felicite Fiech Chebeck, commanded by Captain Felix Podesta, belonging to Ajaccio, mounting Two long Guns in the Bow, and Six Brass Swivels, besides small Arms, &c.

 and I believe Sixty Men, as she appears to have rowed Thirty Oars.

I am sorry to add, that One Man was wounded in boarding. I cannot say too much in Praise of the Crew and Officers upon the Occasion.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

R. PETTET.

COPY of a Letter from Captain George Morris, Commander of His Majesty's Sloop the Penguin, to William Marsden, Esq; dated off Senegal Bar the 25th of March, 1804:

His Majesty's Sloop Penguin, off Senegal-Bar, March 25, 1804.

SIR,
I BEG you will be pleased to acquaint my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that, cruising off Senegal, according to their Lordships' Orders, on the 17th Instant, a French Privateer Schooner, in endeavouring to avoid His Majesty's Brig under my Command, ran on Shore on the Bar, where I had great Reason to hope, from the Surf running high, she would have been destroyed, in which I was disappointed. The Surf continuing I had no Opportunity of destroying her till the 24th Instant. On the 23d, in the Evening, I observed Two armed Schooners had dropped down to the Mouth of the River; and on the Morning of the 24th, from the one on Shore having shifted her Position, I had Reason to believe they were endeavouring to get her off, I therefore stood as close in Shore as the Nature of the Coast would admit, and commenced an Attack on them, in Hopes of driving them up the River, and eventually to burn the one on Shore. We exchanged Shot for an Hour and a Half, when finding I could not get sufficiently close to effect my Purpose, I stood off.

Lieutenants Williams and Rayley, with many of the Crew, having volunteered their Service, and fearing she might be got off and rendered a farther Annoyance to our Trade, I was inclined to accept their Offers, though the Armed Schooners were then within Two Cable's Length of her, and the Surf still running high, threatened much Opposition to their Exertions. At Ten P. M. I dispatched Lieutenant Williams in the Jolly Boat, (conceiving her best adapted to the Surf,) with Orders to destroy her if possible; at One A. M. I had the Satisfaction to see her completely on Fire, and at Daylight totally destroyed. The Service was performed unobserved by the Enemy, and reflects great Credit on Lieutenant Williams and his Party, for the cool and steady Manner in which they conducted the Enterprize, and merits my greatest Acknowledgments and Thanks.

I learn she was called La Renommée, a Vessel of large Dimensions, commanded by Citizen Renaud, mounting Twelve Six-Pounders, Two of which were on board when destroyed, and Two Nines, manned with Eighty-seven Men, belonging to Senegal, from Cayenne, last from Goree.

I have great Pleasure in adding, that not a Man was hurt on this Occasion.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

Copy of a Letter from the Right Honorable Lord Keith, K. B. Admiral of the Blue, &c. to William Marsden, Esq; dated at Ramsgate, the 22d Instant.

SIR,

I TRANSMIT, for their Lordships' Information, a Copy of a Letter from Captain Owen, of His Majesty's Ship the Immortalité, to Rear-Admiral Louis, acquainting him that the Enemy's Flotilla, outside of Boulogne Pier, had been surprised at their Moorings by the late Gale of Wind, and sustained very considerable Loss in attempting to regain their Ports.

Their Lordships will not fail to observe how much Captain Owen expresses himself to be satisfied with the Merits of Captains Jackson and Heywood, of the Autumn and Harpy, and Lieutenants Richardson and Price, commanding the Bloodhound and Archer Gun Brigs.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

KEITH.

His Majesty's Ship Immortalité, Boulogne East Seven or Eight Leagues, July.

SIR,

THE Wind Yesterday set in strong from the N. N. E. and N. E. by N. and made so much Sea, that the Enemy's Vessels in the Road of Boulogne became very uneasy; and about Eight P. M. the Leemost Brigs began to get under Weigh, and work to Windward, whilst some of the Luggers ran down apparently for Etaples; their Force was then Forty-five Brigs and Forty-three Luggers.

I made a Signal to look out on these Vessels, which was immediately obeyed by the Harpy, Bloodhound, and Archer, who closed with them, giving their Fire to such as attempted to stand off from the Land; the Autumn was at this Time getting under Weigh, and lost no Time in giving her Support to the Vessels already on this Service, and continued with them during the whole Weather Tide, to fire, from Time to Time, on such of the Enemy's Vessels as gave them Opportunity. At Daylight this Morning there were Nineteen Brigs and Eight Luggers only remaining in the Bay; and about Six o'Clock these began to slip single and run to the Southward for Etaples or the River Somme, the Autumn and Brigs being then too far to Lee-ward to give them any Interruption.

As soon as the Tide permitted this Ship and the Leader to weigh we stood in with Boulogne, when I perceived that a Brig, a Lugger, and several large Boats were stranded on the Beach West of the Harbour, the Enemy were slipping and endeavouring to save from them what they could, but I have not a Doubt the rising Tide would complete their Destruction; Three other Brigs and a Lugger were on the Rocks near the Village of Portee, totally destroyed, a Brig and Two Luggers remained at Anchor close to the Rocks with Whefts up, and the People huddled together Aboard; the Brig had lost her Topmast, Topail, and Lower Yards, and one of the Luggers the Head of her Mainmast; the Sea was making a perfect Breach over them, and if the Gale continues, their Situation is hopeless.

The Merits of Captains Jackson and Heywood, as well as those of Lieutenants Richardson and Price, are so well known to you that I need not only say, they acted on this Occasion with the same de-cilive Promptness they have always shewn; and though the Night prevented my seeing all that passed, there cannot be a Doubt but that their well-timed Attack caused the Enemy's Confusion, and occasioned much of their Loss, which, taking every Circumstance, is, I doubt not, far beyond what fell within our Observation.

I have not yet been able to collect the Reports of these Officers, but will forward them the Moment that they join me.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) E. W. C. R. OWEN.

SIR,

I BEG Leave to enclose you, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Copy of my Letter to Lord Keith, of this Date.

I am, &c.

R. D. OLIVER.

*Melpomene, off Havre,
July 24, 1804.*

MY LORD,

SINCE my Letter to your Lordship of the 17th Instant, we had very light and variable Winds for Three Days, which were succeeded by a Gale from the Northward, when the Bombs had some Difficulty to keep clear of the Shore. Yesterday the Wind having got to the S. W. I stood in with the Squadron, and at Eleven made the Signal for the Bombs to try their Range; they placed themselves with the utmost Precision immediately off the Pier Heads, and at a Quarter-past Eleven began a most tremendous Fire of Shells and Carcasses, which was continued without Intermision for an Hour and a Half; in a very few Minutes the Town was observed to be on Fire, and as the Pier was very full of Vessels, it is impossible but they must have suffered considerably. The Vessels which had been Outside the Pier, during the Bombardment of the 16th, were so much annoyed as to retire, some into the Pier, and some up the River, one of them was towed on Shore under the Batteries, and has been since taken to Pieces. The Enemy's Mortar Batteries have been very considerably encreased since the Attack of the 16th, and although the Fire from them on the Bombs was as great as I will venture to say, was ever experienced, they being considerably within the Range, yet it is with the most inexpressible Pleasure I acquaint your Lordship, that not a Man has been hurt. A Shell passed through the Mizzen Stay-Sail of the Zebra, another carried away the spare Top-sail-Yard of the Merlin, and Two Chain-Plates, and grazed her Side; and a Forty-two Pound Shot cut the spare Top-mast and some other Spars, and lodged in the Booms of the Hecla; this is all the Damage done. It is impossible for me to find Words to express my Admiration of the Conduct of the Captains Sykes, James, Paul, and Beauchamp, and the other Officers and Crews of the Bombs, for the able Manner in which they placed and managed their Vessels; and also to the Officers and Men of the Royal Artillery embarked on board of them, for the judicious Manner in which they fired the Shells.

Some Luggers came out of the Pier during the Bombardment and fired their Guns, but they were made to keep at a respectful Distance by the Vicinity of the Merlin, Pluto, Locust, and Cutters, which were always ready to give Assistance where wanted, as were the other Ships in the Squadron in the Situations assigned to them.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

ROB. DUDLEY OLIVER.

THIS Day the Lords being met, a Message was sent to the Honorable House of Commons by Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorized by virtue of His Majesty's Commission for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate Attendance of this Honorable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An Act to regulate the Importation and Exportation of Corn, and the Bounties and Duties payable thereon.

An Act for the Relief of certain Insolvent Debtors.

THIS Day His Majesty came to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes, seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers; the Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to give the Royal Assent to

An Act for granting to His Majesty a certain Sum of Money out of the Consolidated Fund of Great Britain; and for applying a certain Sum of Money therein-mentioned for the Service of Great Britain for the Year One thousand eight hundred and four; and for further appropriating the Supplies granted in this Session of Parliament.

After which His Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

BEFORE I put an End to the present Session of Parliament, I am desirous of expressing My entire Approbation of the Zeal and Assiduity with which you have applied yourselves to the great Objects of public Concern which have come under your Consideration.

You have wisely continued to direct your Attention to the Encouragement and Improvement of that respectable and powerful Volunteer Force which the Ardour and Spirit of My Subjects has enabled Me to establish to an Extent hitherto unexampled: You have at the same Time endeavoured to combine an additional Establishment for Our domestic Defence, with the Means of augmenting Our Regular Army, and of maintaining it on such a Scale as may be proportioned to the Circumstances of the Times, and to the Rank which this Country ought ever to hold among the Powers of Europe.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

You are entitled to My warmest Acknowledgments for the fresh Proof which you have given Me of your constant and affectionate Attachment to My Person and Family, and your Regard to the Honor and Dignity of My Crown, by the liberal Provision which you have made for the Payment of the Debt on My Civil List Revenues, and for furnishing Me with the additional Means of defraying the Increase which has unavoidably taken place in different Branches of My Expenditure.

I must also return you My warmest Thanks for the extensive Provision which you have made for the Exigencies of the public Service; and especially for the just and prudent Attention which you have shewn to true Economy, and to the permanent Credit and Welfare of the Country, by the great Exertions you have made for preventing, as far as possible, the Accumulation of Debt, and for raising so large a Proportion of the Expences of the War within the Year.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I have now only to recommend to you to carry into your respective Counties the same Zeal for the public Interest which has guided all your Proceedings. It will be your particular Duty to inculcate on the Minds of all Classes of My Subjects, that the Preservation of all that is most dear to them requires the Continuance of their unremitting Exertions for the National Defence.

The Preparations which the Enemy has long been forming for the declared Purpose of invading this Kingdom are daily augmented, and the Attempt appears to have been delayed only with the View of procuring additional Means for carrying it into Execution.

Relying on the Skill, Valour, and Discipline of my Naval and Military Force, aided by the voluntary Zeal and Native Courage of My People, I look with Confidence to the Issue of this great Conflict; and I doubt not that it will terminate, under the Blessing of Providence, not only in repelling the Danger of the Moment, but in establishing, in the Eyes of Foreign Nations, the Security of this Country on a Basis never to be shaken.

In addition to this first and great Object, I entertain the animating Hope that the Benefits to be derived from Our successful Exertions will not be confined within Ourselves; but that, by their Example and their Consequences, they may lead to the Re-establishment of such a System in Europe as may rescue it from the precarious State to which it is reduced; and may finally raise an effectual Barrier against the unbounded Schemes of Aggrandizement and Ambition which threaten every independent Nation that yet remains on the Continent.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by His Majesty's Command, said,

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

IT is His Majesty's Royal Will and Pleasure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tuesday the Fourth Day of September next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament be accordingly prorogued to Tuesday the Fourth Day of September next.

Kingdoms, or in the Exportation of the Tools and Instruments used by them, as well as to the Artificers or Manufacturers themselves.

Statute 5 George I. Chap. 27.

IF any Person shall contract with, entice, or solicit, any Artificer in Wool, Iron, Steel, Brasses, or other Metal, Clock-maker, Watch-maker, or any other Artificer of Great Britain, to go into Foreign Countries out of the King's Dominions, and shall be convicted thereof, upon Indictment or Information in any of the Courts at Westminster, or at the Assizes or Quarter Sessions, he shall be fined any Sum not exceeding ONE HUNDRED POUNDS for the first Offence, and shall be imprisoned Three Months, and till the Fine be paid. And if any Person having been once convicted shall offend again, he shall be fined at the Discretion of the Court, and imprisoned Twelve Months, and till the Fine be paid.

If any of the King's Subjects, being such Artificers, shall go into any Country out of His Majesty's Dominions, to exercise or teach the said Trades to Foreigners; and if any of the King's Subjects in any such Foreign Country, exercising any of the said Trades, shall not return into this Realm within Six Months after Warning given by the Ambassador, Minister, or Consul of Great Britain, in the Country where such Artificers shall be, or by any Person authorized by such Ambassador, &c. or by one of the Secretaries of State, and from henceforth inhabit within this Realm; such Persons shall be incapable of taking any Legacy, or of being an Executor or Administrator, or of taking any Lands, &c. within this Kingdom, by Descent, Devise, or Purchase, and shall forfeit all Lands, Goods, &c. within this Kingdom, to His Majesty's Use, and shall be deemed Alien, and out of His Majesty's Protection.

And if any such Artificer shall be convicted, upon Indictment, of any such Promise, Contract, or Preparation to go beyond the Seas, for the Purpose aforesaid, he shall give such Security to the King not to depart out of His Majesty's Dominions, as such Court shall think reasonable, and shall be imprisoned till Security given.

If any Officer of the Customs in Great Britain or of the Revenue in Ireland, take, or knowingly suffer to be taken, any Entry outward, or sign any Coeket or Suffrance for the Shipping or Exporting of any of the said Tools, or knowingly suffer the same to be done, he shall forfeit ONE HUNDRED POUNDS, to be recovered as aforesaid, and also forfeit his Office, and be incapable of any Office under His Majesty.

One Moiety of the Forfeitures shall be applied to the Use of His Majesty, and the other Moiety to the Use of the Person who shall sue for the same.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Sir Charles Cotton, Bart. to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board His Majesty's Ship the San Josef, off Ushant, August 4, 1804.

SIR,

HEREWITH I transmit a Letter, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, from Vice-Admiral Sir Robert Calder, with its Enclosures, giving an Account of the Destruction of Two of the Enemy's Corvettes by His Majesty's Ship the Aigle, off Bourdeaux.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

CHARLES COTTON.

*Prince of Wales, off Rocheford,
July 19, 1804.*

SIR,

IHAVE the Pleasure to inform you His Majesty's Ship the Aigle (who I had placed in Shore to watch the Enemy's Motion) fell in with Two French National Corvettes, which Captain Wolfe drove on Shore near Bourdeaux and burnt, having first used every Means without Effect to get them afloat. The Aigle found only Twenty-six French Officers and Men left on board these Corvettes when they took Possession of them; the rest had made their Escape on Shore.

The Names of these Corvettes are La Chante and La Joie; the first a Ship of Twenty Guns and One Hundred and Four Men, and the other a Brig, armed for Fourteen Guns, but had only Eight mounted, and Seventy-five Men. They had on board the Ordnance and Stores complete for a Corvette just launched at Bayonne, to which Place they were carrying them.

I here enclose Captain Wolfe's Letter to me of his Proceedings in the destroying of these Vessels, and also a List of the Prisoners he has on board; that I have directed to be sent into Port by the first Opportunity.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) ROB. CALDER.

SIR. His Majesty's Ship the Aigle, July 16, 1804

AFTER passing the Squadron on the 9th Instant, when, at the Anchorage No. 5, we were close to the S. W. by the Gale; in the 10th we lost Sight of the Hawk. On the 12th, when standing in for Cordouan, in beating up for the Rendezvous, saw a large Brig and Ship with all Sail set, steering to the Southward. I supposed them to be Part of the Squadron from Rochefort. At Five P. M. closed with them, (they never altering their Course from our first seeing them,) prepared and expecting, from their Manœuvres and Signals, a close Action, they having shortened Sail, (with Men at their Quarters,) when within proper Distance: but, to our great Surprise, after firing their Starboard Broadside at us, they ran the Ships on the Strand, within a Stone's Cast of each other, and directly took to the Boats, which instantly swamped on touching the Beach, about Ten Leagues to the South of Cordouan, and some of them were drowned. The Wind being at N. E. and about Two Points off the Land, I had great Hopes of getting one or both of them afloat again, and anchored the Aigle about a Mile from the Beach: but after a Night and Part of the next Day in fruitless Efforts, from the very great Surf set in by the late Western Gale, I was obliged to destroy them by Fire, which was effectually done by Mr. Foulger, Master, and Mr. Steel the Gunner, as scarcely any Part was perceptible when the Aigle made Sail.

The Prisoners on board the Aigle are John Sanfon, Lieutenant de Vaisseau, the Officers, and Eight Soldiers and Sailors of the French National Ship the Chante, of Four Hundred and Twenty Tons, Twenty Guns, Six-Pounders, Four Swivels, and One Hundred and Four Men.

Berjamin Godobert, Lieutenant de Vaisseau, his Officers, and Nine Soldiers and Sailors of the French National Brig Le Joie, Two Hundred and Fifty Tons, pierced for Forties, but only Eight Twelve-Pounder mounted, Two Swivels, and Seventy-five Men. La Joie had Sixteen Six Pounder, a Quantity of Arms, Powder, Shot, and other Ordnance Stores in the Hold. They were from Rochefort, but had sailed in the Morning from the Gironde, heading along Shore for Bayonne, and intended to return from thence with Stores for the French Marine at Rochefort, which I am proud in having prevented, and trust in meeting your Approbation. None of their Shot struck us, nor did ours materially injure them, as only their Masts and Sails were a little torn.

Had they come alongside, as expected, the Brig having shifted her Guns for the Purpose, I am certain the Crew of the Aigle would have acquitted themselves as Englishmen do on those Occasions.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

GEO. WOLFE.

Copy of a Letter from Captain Robert Dudley Oliver, Commander of His Majesty's Ship the Melpomene, to William Marsden, Esq; dated off Havre, the 2d Instant.

SIR,

I Beg Leave to enclose to you, for the Information of my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Copy of my Letter to Lord Keith, of this Date.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

R. D. OLIVER.

MY LORD, Melpomene, off Havre, Aug. 2, 1804.

THE Wind having changed Yesterday to the N. E. I determined to make another Attack on the numerous Vessels in Havre Pier, as well as those which were moored outside, amounting to Twenty-eight Brigs, and as many Luggers, and flood in with the Squadron, as per Margin*. At Half past Seven, P. M. the Bombs were well placed off the Pier-Heads, when they began a well-directed Fire, which was kept up with great Spirit for about an Hour and a Half. The Town was very soon observed to be on Fire in Two Places; and Seven Brigs, which were on the Outside of the Pier, found it necessary to move; one lost her Mainmast. As the Wind came more off the Land, and a strong Ebb Tide setting out, I ordered the Bombs to discontinue firing. At Half past Nine we anchored with the Squadron about Five Miles from the Light-Houses. As the Explosion had fired away all her Shells, and the Zebra most of her Powder, I had them supplied from the Meteor; and at Half past Five this Morning got under weigh, and flood in with the Squadron again. Before Eight the Bombs took up their Position near the Pier Heads, and kept up a constant Fire for near Three Hours with Shells and Carcasses; so many Shells burst on and about the Piers, that the Enemy's Fire was observed latterly to slacken considerably, and it was evident they were in the greatest Confusion; some Brigs and Luggers, however, got under Weigh, and came out to endeavour to annoy the Bombs, but all the other Ships and Vessels of the Squadron were so well placed as to give Chace to them immediately; and it was only by cutting away their Boats, which were a-stern, and retreating very speedily into shoal Water, that they escaped, but not before they had run the Gauntlet of all the Ships and Cutters, and were very closely engaged for a considerable Time by the Merlin, Favonite, Locust Gun-Brig and Hope Cutter; and on this Occasion I feel particularly indebted to the Exertions of Captains Brenton and Foot, and Lieutenants Lake and Dobbin, whose Vessels were very often during the Action in very shoal Water, with a falling Tide; indeed nothing but the bad sailing of the Merlin prevented Captain Brenton from cutting off the Sternmost Brig.

The Locust lost her Main-topmast, but I have not heard of any other Loss. The Conduct of the Captains Sykes, James, Paul, and Beauchamp, commanding the Bombs on both these Occasions, was highly meritorious; and although their Ships were frequently struck, it gives me great Pleasure to add that no Lives have been lost. What Damage may be done to the Enemy by near Five Hundred Shells and Carcasses thrown into the Town and Belfon last Evening, and this Morning it is impossible to calculate, but I may without Vanity say, that if the Exertions of the Enemy's Flotilla be not much greater on our Shore than on their own, we have little to dread from them.

I cannot conclude without expressing my Obligations to every Officer and Man employed in this Squadron. I am, &c.

(Signed) R. DUDLEY OLIVER.

THE Court of Directors of the East India Company have transmitted to this Office an Account of an Action which took place in the China Seas, on the 15th of February last, between a Division of the Company's Ships and a French Squadron, of which the following is a Copy :

SIR,

FOR the Information of the Honorable Court, I beg Leave to acquaint you, that the Earl Camden was dispatched from Canton by the Select Committee the 31st of January last, and the Ships noted in the Margin* were put under my Orders as Senior Commander, all the Rolla Botany Bay Ship, and the Country Ships, as per Margin†, were put under my Charge to convoy as far as our Courses lay in the same Direction. I was also ordered to take under my Protection a Portuguese Europe Ship that was lying in Macao Roads, whose Supra Cargo had solicited it from the Select Committee.

Our Passage down the River was tedious, and the Fleet much dispersed, the Ships being under the Directions of their several Chinese Pilots, I could not keep them collected as I wished.

The Ganges, a fast-sailing Brig, was put under my Orders by the Select Committee to employ in any Manner that might tend to the Safety or Convenience of the Fleet, till we had passed the Straights of Malacca; I was then to dispatch her to Bengal.

We passed Macao Roads on the Night of the 5th of February, and I conceive the Rolla had anchored so near Macao as not to see the Fleet get under Weigh, and pass through, although, at the Time, I had no Idea that could be possible, especially as I saw the Ocean in front of us getting under Weigh, burning Blue Lights, and firing a Gun; the Portuguese Ship, I suppose, must have been in the same Situation as the Rolla.

During the Night of the 5th of February, I carried an easy Sail, and on the following Day hove-to for above Two Hours, hoping to see those Ships, but there was no Appearance of them, nor did they ever join the Fleet.

On the 14th February, at Daybreak, we saw Pulo Auro, bearing W. S. W. and at Eight A. M. the Royal George made the Signal for seeing Four strange Sail in the S. W. I made the Signal for the Four Ships noted in the Margin‡, to go down and examine them, and Lieutenant Fowler, of the Royal Navy, late Commander of the Porpoise, and Passenger with me, having handsomely offered to go in the Ganges Brig, and inspect them nearly. I afterwards sent her down likewise; and from their Signals I perceived it was an Enemy's Squadron, consisting of a Line of Battle Ship, Three Frigates, and a Brig.

At One P. M. I recalled the Look-out Ships by Signal, and formed the Line of Battle in close Order.

As soon as the Enemy could fetch in our Wake they put about, we kept on our Course under an easy Sail; at near Sunset they were close in our Rear, and I was in momentary Expectation of an Attack there, and preparing to support them, but at the Close of the Day we perceived them haul to Windward. I sent Lieutenant Fowler, in the Ganges Brig to station the Country Ships on our Lee-Bow, by which Means we were between them and the Enemy; and having done so, he returned with some Volunteers from the Country Ships.

We lay to in Line of Battle all Night, our Men at their Quarters; at Day break of the 15th, we saw the Enemy about Three Miles to Windward, laying to—We hoisted our Colours, offering him Battle if he chose to come down. The Enemy's Four Ships hoisted French Colours, the Line of Battle Ship carrying a Rear-Admiral's Flag; the Brig was under Batavian Colours.

At Nine A. M. finding they would not come down, we formed the Order of sailing, and steered our Course under an easy Sail; the Enemy then filled their Sails, and edged towards us.

At One P. M. finding they proposed to attack and endeavour to cut off our Rear, I made the Signal to tack and bear down on him, and engage in Succession—the Royal George being the leading Ship, the Ganges next, and then the Earl Camden. This Manœuvre was correctly performed, and we stood towards him under a Press of Sail. The Enemy then formed in a very close Line, and opened their Fire on the headmost Ships, which was not returned by us till we approached him nearer. The Royal George bore the Brunt of the Action, and got as near the Enemy as he would permit him. The Ganges and Earl Camden opened their Fire as soon as their Guns could have Effect; but before any other Ship could get into Action, the Enemy hauled their Wind, and stood away to the Eastward under all the Sail they could set.—At Two P. M. I made the Signal for a general Chase, and we pursued them till Four P. M.; when fearing a longer Pursuit would carry us too far from the Mouth of the Straits, and considering the immense Property at Stake, I made the Signal to tack; and at Eight P. M. we anchored in a Situation to proceed for the Entrance of the Straits in the Morning. As long as we could distinguish the Enemy, we perceived him steering to the Eastward under a Press of Sail.

The Royal George had One Man killed and another wounded, many Shot in her Hull, and more in her Sails; but few Shot touched either the Camden or Ganges, and the Fire of the Enemy seemed to be ill directed, his Shot either falling short or passing over us.

Captain Timins carried the Royal George into Action in the most gallant Manner. In Justice to my Brother Commanders I must state, that every Ship was clear and prepared for Action; and as I had Communication with almost all of them during the Two Days we were in Presence of the Enemy, I found them unanimous in the determined Resolution to defend the valuable Property entrusted to their Charge to the last Extremity, with a full Conviction of the fatal Extent of their Exertions; and this Spirit was fully testified by the constant Ardour of all our Officers and Ships Companies.

I feel so great Affiance from the Advice and Exertions of Lieutenant Fowler, who, by his meritorious Conduct in this Instance I hope the Honourable Court will communicate to the Lords of the Admiralty.

From Malacca I dispatched Lieutenant Fowler in the Ganges Brig to Pulo Penang, with a Packet from the Select Committee to the Captain of any of His Majesty's Ships, soliciting their Convoy to this very valuable Fleet.

On Arrival at Malacca we were informed that the Squadron we had engaged was that of Admiral Linois, consisting of the Marengo, of Eighty-four Guns, the Bele Poule and Smillante heavy Frigates, a Corvette of Twenty-eight, and the Batavian Brig William, of Eighteen Guns.

The 28th February, in the Straits of Malacca, Lat. 4 Deg. 30 Min. N. we fell in with His Majesty's Ships Albion and Sceptre; I was then in a very poor State of Health, and Mr. Lance went on Board the Albion, and by his very able Representation to Captain Ferrier, of the great national Consequence of the Honourable Company's Ships, he was induced to take Charge of the Fleet.

On the 3d of March I dispatched the Ganges Brig with a Letter to the Right Honorable the Governor General, giving an Account of our Action, to be conveyed to the Honorable Court.

We arrived at St. Helena the 9th of June, under Convoy of His Majesty's Ships Albion and Sceptre, and sailed the 18th, under Convoy of His Majesty's Ship Plantagenet, with the Addition of the Car-marthen, Captain Dobree, and Five Whalers.

Accompanying this, I send a Chart of the Entrance of the Straits of Malacca, with the Situation of the Fleet on the 14th and 15th February, which will, I trust, convey a more distinct Idea of the Action than any written Description.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

Copy of a Letter from Vice-Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels in the Mediterranean, to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board the Victory, off Toulon, June 8, 1804.

SIR,

HEREWITH transmit you, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, Copy of a Letter, dated the 3d Ultimo, from Captain Corbet, of His Majesty's Sloop Bittern, to Captain Schomberg, senior Officer at Malta, giving an Account of his having, on the 28th of April last, captured the French Privateer L'Hirondelle, and recaptured the Two English Merchant Ships named in the Margin*, her Prizes. The Conduct of Captain Corbet, the Officers and Company of the Bittern, entitles them to my warmest Thanks for their very great Perseverance and Exertions in the Capture of the above Privateer, which, I understand, is a remarkable fine Vessel, and had greatly annoyed our Trade in these Seas.

I am, &c.

NELSON & BRONTE.

His Majesty's Ship Bittern, off Cape Passaro, 3d May 1804.

SIR,

IN Execution of your Orders of the 27th Ultimo, I have great Satisfaction in informing you, that, on the Morning of the 28th, Cape Passaro bearing N. E. Eight Leagues, I got Sight of the Privateer you alluded to, then apparently taking Possession of Two Brigs. On our Appearance they separated. Thinking the Appearance of the Weather favourable, I dispatched a Boat in chase of each Brig, and followed the Privateer.

On the Evening of the 29th, after a Chase of Thirty-six Hours in a perfect Calm, and Six Hours incessant Fire from his Stern and our Bow Chasers, he struck, finding the Vessel filling fast from a Shot Hole under Water, which we, however, stopped.

She proves to be the L'Hirondelle, a very fine Cutter, fitted out from Cette, mounting Fourteen Twelve-Pounders, his Complement Eighty Men (many of whom were with Prizes), coppered Bottom, and just launched.

* Mentor and Catharine.

On the Evening of the 27th he had taken (after an Action) the King George, Malta Government Brig. At the Time I had the Luck to see him he had captured the abovementioned Brigs, and was in Chase of a Sloop, which we prevented him boarding.

We received no Damage from his Fire, (chiefly aimed at our Masts,) save a Twelve-Pound Shot through our Starboard Bow, between Wind and Water, and a few Ropes cut.

On hearing of the Capture of the King George, (as it still remained Calm,) I dispatched Lieutenant Nicholas in the Launch to Syracuse, hoping to intercept her; but, after rowing Fifteen Leagues, he had the Disappointment to find her a few Hours arrived. Lieutenant Pétet joined me here Yesterday with the Boats, having taken the Recaptures to Malta. They prove to be the Mentor, of London, and the Catharine, of Liverpool, from Messina to Malta to join Convoy, with valuable Cargoes.

The persevering Exertions of the Ship's Company deserve mention. They were at the Sweeps (to which Purpose I had converted all the small Spars) for Thirty-six Hours without Intermision, even to Meals, in which Time they swept the Ship Sixty Miles, without an Air of Wind. Their Conduct gives me much Reason to regret the Disparity of the Enemy's Force.

I am, &c.

(Signed) ROBERT CORBET.

I am, &c.

I am, &c. S. H. INGLEFIELD.

AT the Court at the Queen's Palace, the 18th of August 1804,

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this Day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament, which stands prorogued to Tuesday the Fourth Day of September next, be further prorogued to Thursday the Fourth Day of October next.

Admiralty-Office, August 21, 1804.

Copy of a Letter from Sir Charles Cotton, Bart. Vice-Admiral of the White, to William Marsden, Esq; dated on board the San Josef off Ushant, the 16th Instant.

SIR,

HEREWITH I transmit, for the Information of the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, a Letter from Captain Innes, of His Majesty's Sloop Rambler, giving an Account of the Capture of Two Sloops of the Enemy, and of having driven on Shore the Rest of a Coasting Convoy at St. Gillies.

I am, &c.

CHAS. COTTON.

His Majesty's Sloop Rambler, at Sea, August 16, 1804.

SIR,

I HAVE the Honor to acquaint you, that, being between the Isle Oien and the Main, on the Morning of the 7th Instant, I observed Nine Sail of Sloops and Chasse Marces close in Shore, steering to the Southward and Eastward. About Nine it fell calm; I then sent the Boats, under the Command of Lieutenant Foreman and Mr. Cox Master's-Mate, to take Possession of them, but, favoured by a light Air, they came to an Anchor under the Battery of St. Gillies, and within Musket-Shot of the Shore; notwithstanding which, Two of the Sloops were brought off with great Gallantry under a smart Fire from Field-Pieces and Musketry: The others cut their Cables, and ran aground so near to the Pier Head it was impossible to get them off.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

(Signed) THOMAS INNES.

Sir Charles Cotton, Bart. &c. &c. &c.

Copy of a Letter from Admiral Lord Gardner, Commander in Chief of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels on the Coast of Ireland, to William Marsden, Esq; dated at Cork the 22d of August 1804.

SIR,

CAPTAIN MAITLAND, of His Majesty's Ship Loire, (who has been cruizing for the last Three Weeks, for the Protection of the home-ward-bound Convoys,) arrived here this Afternoon with the Blonde, a large French Privateer, of Thirty-Guns, Nine-Pounders, and Two Hundred and Forty Men.

Enclosed I have the Honor of transmitting to you, for their Lordships' Information, Copy of Captain Maitland's Letter to me on the Subject, together with a List of Wounded on board the Loire. I have the Honor to be, &c.

GARDNER.

MY LORD, Loire, at Sea, August 18, 1804.

IHAVE much Satisfaction in announcing to you the Capture (by His Majesty's Ship Loire) of a Frigate Privateer, belonging to Bourdeaux, mounting Thirty Nine-Pounders, with Two Hundred and Forty Men, which I had the good Fortune to fall in with in Lat. 40 Deg. 30 Min. Long. 12 Deg. 20 Min. on the 17th Instant; she has been a wonderful Annoyance to the British Trade during the present War, and is the Ship Captain Gordon so gallantly contested with, until the Wolverine was in the Act of sinking. She held the Loire a Chase of Twenty Hours, the last Quarter of an Hour being a running Action; from our Situation, together with the Darkness of the Night, few of our Guns took effect upon her till latterly. Seven of her Men were badly wounded, Two of which are since dead. Six of the Loire's Men were wounded, Two only severely, and, I am happy to add, are in a fair Way of Recovery. I have every Reason to be pleased with the Conduct of the Officers and Ship's Company I have the Honor to command, during the short Time the Action lasted, and feel satisfied, that had she been a Frigate of equal Force to the Loire, they would have lost none of the Credit they so deservedly obtained on a former Occasion.

The Blonde had been out Twenty Days from Passage in Spain, without having made any Capture. She is a very fine Ship, sails remarkably fast, and appears to me very well calculated for His Majesty's Service. Enclosed is a List of the Wounded on board the Loire.

I have the Honor to be, &c.

Admiral Lord Gardner. F. L. MAITLAND.

List of Wounded on board His Majesty's Ship Loire, in Action with the Blonde, 17th August 1804.

Midshipman.—Mr. Connor.

Seamen.—William Taylor, James Thompson, (severely,) Joseph Covey, David Light, and Alexander Brown.

(Signed) FRED. L. MAITLAND.

By the Court,
THOMAS SHELTON,
Clerk of the Peace.

THE 10th of July 1804, a Cause was tried before Lord Ellenborough, Lord Chief Justice of the Court of King's-Bench, and a Special Jury of Merchants, at Guildhall, London, between B. H. Inglish, opposite the New Church, in the Strand, the only Proprietor of that excellent Medicine called Dr. ANDERSON'S, or, THE TRUE SCOTS PILLS, Plaintiff, and John Tyce, of Fleet-Market, Defendant. The Cause of Action was the Defendant's selling a Sort of Scots Pills, wrapped in Papers representing them to be made by Mr. James Inglish, one of the Plaintiff's Ancestors, and as coming from the Unicorn over against the New Church in the Strand, the Plaintiff's Dwelling-House.—Mr. Erskine opened the Cause for the Plaintiff, Mr. Inglish, with great Judgment and Ability, stating the high Reputation this Medicine has been held in for upwards of One Hundred and Fifty Years, ever since the Invention of it by that skilful and eminent Man Dr. Patrick Anderson, Physician to King Charles the First; and observing on the high Esteem it has been held in by many of the first Physicians since his Time, several of whom have given Mr. Inglish's Family Certificate of its Excellence, recommending it as a most useful Family Medicine.—Mr. Newbery, of St. Paul's Church-Yard, bore Testimony of the great Virtues of this Medicine as prepared by the Plaintiff, and of its high Reputation with the Public; and also of the extensive Sale which he, as a Vendor of Genuine Medicines, had for this in particular. Other respectable Persons in the same Way of Business gave Evidence to the same Effect: And it being clearly proved that the Plaintiff and his Ancestors, descended from Dr. Anderson, were possessed of the Genuine and only True Receipt for the preparing this Medicine, and Mr. Inglish's Object in prosecuting the Action being to secure to the Public a valuable Medicine unadulterated, and to prevent Imposition in future, and not to obtain a Sum of Money as Damages to himself, he, upon the Suggestion of the Defendant's Counsel, consented to withdraw a Juror, the Court making the following Order:

INGLISH against TYCE.

It is ordered by the Court, by and with the Consent of the Plaintiff and Defendant, being both present in Court, their Counsel and Attornies, that the last Juror sworn and impanelled in this Cause be withdrawn out of the Pannel; the Defendant undertaking and engaging not to utter, vend, or sell, by himself, or any other on his Behalf, the Medicine in question in this Cause, called "Dr. Anderson's Scots Pills," or "Dr. Anderson's, or the famous Scots Pills," in any Wrapper, Cover, Paper, or Inclosure whatsoever, which shall denote, signify, or express, or bear any Mark to indicate that the same are Pills made or prepared by James Inglish, or any Person of the Name of Inglish, or which were ever uttered, or came from, or sold at the Unicorn over against the New Church in the Strand: And lastly it is ordered, by and with such Consent as aforesaid, that this Order be made a Rule of the said Court of our Lord the King before the King himself.

THO. LOWTEN. BY THE COURT.

There was another Cause which came on to be tried the same Day, at the Suit of Mr. Inglish, against Isaac Silkcock, of Tottenham-Court-Road, Vender of Medicines, for the like Injury, which was disposed of by a similar Rule of Court.

In consequence of the daily Complaints made at Mr. Inglish's House, in the Strand, of the pernicious Effects resulting from the Use of Scots Pills which are supposed to have been prepared there and vended from thence, but which are in fact Counterfeits, Mr. Inglish has discovered many other Persons who have for some Time past been in the Habit of imposing upon the Public and him, by selling such Trash; and Mr. Inglish had directed his Solicitor to commence Actions against several of those Persons; but upon the Intercession of their Friends, and their solemnly promising not to continue a Practice so deceitful and injurious, he has been induced to forbear proceeding against them.

To caution the Public against purchasing, and all Druggists, Chymists, and Venders of Medicines in particular, against selling spurious Scots Pills, Mr. Inglish has thought it expedient to publish to the World the foregoing established Facts and Authorities, through the Medium of the London Gazette, and many of the Town and Country Newspapers, and by Means of Hand-Bills; and having so done, he hereby gives Notice, that he will certainly bring Actions against all Persons who shall hereafter utter or vend any Pills as or for Scots Pills prepared by him, or coming from his House, opposite the New Church, in the Strand, which are not so.

And, as a further Caution against Counterfeits, Mr. Inglish acquaints the Public, that His Majesty has been graciously pleased to grant His Royal Authority directing his Arms to be enrolled in the Royal College, and they are as follows, viz.

And every Box is sealed with his Arms and Motto as above; and the Honorable Commissioners of His Majesty's Stamp Duties have ordered, that the Stamp wrapped round the Box shall contain the following Words, "B. H. Inglish, No. 165, Strand, opposite the New Church, printed with Red Ink, and by a late Act of Parliament the Forgery of the Stamp is Death.

Terms of Sale.—The Pills are sold Retail, at 1s. each Box, Stamp Duty included.

The Box is wrapped in a printed Bill, describing the various Complaints to which the Pills are peculiarly serviceable; and in some Cases they are fully established to be a specific and sovereign Remedy: and all the Wrappers have Mr. Inglish's Arms printed on them, and are signed "B. H. Inglish."
